

Registration and Information Form

Thank you for joining the Kids First Parents' Forum, a parent-led group, with over 200 members. The group helps to influence the development and improvement of local services by ensuring the voice of parents is heard. It also provides the opportunity for parents to support each other and share information and experiences.

We would prefer to send some of our information by email. If you are agreeable, please provide your email address below. Please note, this is solely for use by Kids First and will not be passed to third parties.
